

24 Room-by-Room Coordinated Knits to Create a Look You'll Love to Live In

Knitting is a versatile and timeless craft that can be used to create a wide variety of items, from cozy blankets to stylish clothing. In recent years, knitted home décor has become increasingly popular, as people look for ways to add warmth and personality to their homes. One of the most popular ways to use knits in home décor is to create room-by-room coordinated sets. These sets can include items such as throws, pillows, curtains, and rugs, all made from the same yarn and in a complementary color scheme. Coordinated knit sets can create a cohesive and inviting look in any room of your home.

Living Room

The living room is a great place to start when creating a coordinated knit set. A cozy throw blanket is a must-have for any living room, and it can be easily paired with matching pillows and curtains. If you have a fireplace, a knitted fireside rug can add a touch of warmth and elegance. For a more modern look, try a knitted slipcover for your sofa.

Bedroom

The bedroom is another great place to use coordinated knits. A knitted bedspread or duvet cover can create a cozy and inviting atmosphere. Matching pillows and curtains can complete the look. If you have a dressing table, a knitted vanity skirt can add a touch of elegance. For a more personal touch, try knitting a monogrammed throw blanket or pillowcase.

Bathroom

Even the bathroom can benefit from a touch of coordinated knits. A knitted shower curtain can add a touch of warmth and privacy. Matching bath mats and towels can complete the look. If you have a small bathroom, a knitted storage basket can help you keep your toiletries organized. For a more luxurious touch, try knitting a knitted bathrobe or slippers.

An easy bath time upgrade

Kitchen

The kitchen is another great place to use coordinated knits. A knitted tablecloth can add a touch of warmth and elegance to your dining table. Matching placemats and napkins can complete the look. If you have a kitchen island, a knitted bar stool cover can add a touch of comfort. For a more practical touch, try knitting a knitted potholder or oven mitt.

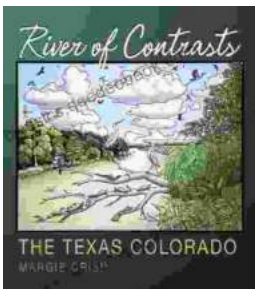

Coordinated knit sets are a great way to add warmth, personality, and style to your home. They can be used in any room of the house, from the living room to the bathroom to the kitchen. With a little planning, you can create a coordinated knit set that you'll love to live in.
