

East Coast North America 2003: A Poetic Journey

In the summer of 2003, I embarked on a journey down the East Coast of North America. I traveled from Maine to Florida, stopping at various cities and towns along the way. I was inspired by the beauty of the landscape, the richness of the culture, and the friendliness of the people I met. I wrote a series of poems about my experiences, which I have collected here in this volume.
