The Stanley Hotel

The Stanley Hotel is located in Estes Park, Colorado, and is one of the most famous haunted hotels in the world. The hotel was built in 1909 by Freelan Oscar Stanley, the inventor of the Stanley Steamer automobile. Stanley was a wealthy man, and he spared no expense in building his hotel. The Stanley Hotel is a beautiful building, with a grand staircase, a large ballroom, and a number of elegant guest rooms.

The Stanley Hotel has a long history of paranormal activity. Guests have reported seeing ghosts, hearing strange noises, and feeling cold spots. Some of the most famous ghosts at the Stanley Hotel include:

- Lucy: Lucy is the ghost of a young woman who died in the hotel in the early 1900s. She is often seen wandering the halls of the hotel, and she has been known to interact with guests.

- Lord Dunraven: Lord Dunraven was a wealthy Irishman who stayed at the Stanley Hotel in the early 1900s. He was a known gambler and womanizer, and he is said to have died in the hotel after a night of heavy drinking. His ghost is often seen in the hotel's bar, and he has been known to play pranks on guests.
- Elizabeth Wilson: Elizabeth Wilson was a chambermaid at the Stanley Hotel who died in 1911. Her ghost is often seen in the hotel's hallways, and she has been known to help guests find their way around the hotel.

The Stanley Hotel is a popular destination for ghost hunters and paranormal enthusiasts. The hotel offers a number of ghost tours, and guests can even stay in one of the hotel's haunted rooms.
