A Complex Web of Characters

The characters in The Ultra Violets are as complex and multifaceted as the novel's themes. David, the protagonist, undergoes a profound transformation as he grapples with his newfound abilities and the moral implications they carry. The other Ultra Violets, each with their unique motivations and flaws, represent a microcosm of human nature, highlighting the potential for both good and evil that exists within us all.

Christopher's characters are not mere pawns in a plot but fully realized individuals with their own desires, fears, and vulnerabilities. Their interactions create a rich tapestry of human relationships, exploring the complexities of love, loyalty, and betrayal.

A Timeless Classic with Enduring Relevance
