Under The Feet of Jesus is divided into three parts. The first part, "The Basics," introduces readers to the essential beliefs of Christianity. Greear explains the importance of the Trinity, the deity of Christ, the virgin birth, the resurrection, and the Holy Spirit. He also discusses the nature of sin and the need for salvation. The second part, "The Journey," explores the Christian life. Greear writes about the importance of prayer, Bible study, worship, and fellowship. He also discusses the challenges and trials that Christians face, and how to overcome them. The third part, "The Destination," looks at the future of the Christian faith. Greear writes about the second coming of Christ, the resurrection of the dead, and the new heaven and new earth. He concludes by urging readers to live their lives in light of the hope that is to come.

Under The Feet of Jesus is a must-read for anyone who wants to learn more about the Christian faith. It is a deeply personal and insightful work that will challenge and inspire readers of all ages. Greear writes with a passion and conviction that is contagious, and he has a gift for making the complex truths of Christianity clear and accessible. Under The Feet of Jesus is a book that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.

Key Themes of *Under The Feet of Jesus

Under The Feet of Jesus explores a number of key themes, including:

- Salvation: Greear argues that salvation is a gift from God that is received through faith in Jesus Christ. He explains that salvation is not simply about going to heaven when we die, but about being reconciled to God and living a life of purpose and meaning now.
- Grace: Greear emphasizes the importance of grace in the Christian life. He explains that grace is God's unmerited favor towards us, and that it is what makes salvation possible. Grace is not something that we can earn or deserve, but it is something that we can receive freely by faith.
- Forgiveness: Greear discusses the importance of forgiveness, both in our relationship with God and in our relationships with others. He explains that forgiveness is not about condoning sin, but about releasing the burden of guilt and anger that sin brings. Forgiveness is a gift that we can give to ourselves and to others, and it is a key to living a life of freedom and peace.

- Love: Greear writes about the importance of love in the Christian life. He explains that love is not simply a feeling, but a choice that we make. Love is the foundation of all Christian relationships, and it is what makes the Christian faith unique. Love is what motivates us to serve others, to forgive others, and to share the gospel with others.
- Hope: Greear discusses the importance of hope in the Christian life. He explains that hope is not simply wishful thinking, but a confident expectation that God will fulfill his promises. Hope is what sustains us through the challenges and trials of life, and it is what gives us the strength to keep going. Hope is a gift from God, and it is a key to living a life of joy and peace.
- Joy: Greear writes about the importance of joy in the Christian life. He explains that joy is not simply happiness, but a deep-seated contentment that comes from knowing God. Joy is a fruit of the Spirit, and it is something that we can experience even in the midst of difficult circumstances. Joy is a gift from God, and it is a key to living a life of fulfillment.
- Peace: Greear discusses the importance of peace in the Christian life. He explains that peace is not simply the absence of conflict, but a deep-seated tranquility that comes from knowing God. Peace is a fruit of the Spirit, and it is something that we can experience even in the midst of chaotic circumstances. Peace is a gift from God, and it is a key to living a life of wholeness.
