Key Players

- QB Kenny Pickett: Pickett is entering his second season as the Steelers' starting quarterback, and he's looking to build on a solid rookie campaign. He has a strong arm and good mobility, and he's surrounded by a talented group of receivers.
- RB Najee Harris: Harris is one of the most talented running backs in the NFL, and he's coming off a breakout season in 2023. He's a physical runner who can also catch passes out of the backfield.

- WR Diontae Johnson: Johnson is the Steelers' leading receiver, and he's one of the most underrated wideouts in the NFL. He's a great route runner with good hands, and he's a threat to score every time he touches the ball.
- TE Pat Freiermuth: Freiermuth is a rising star at tight end, and he's coming off a breakout season in 2023. He's a big target with good hands, and he's a dangerous weapon in the red zone.
- DE T.J. Watt: Watt is one of the best pass rushers in the NFL, and he's coming off a dominant season in 2023. He's a relentless pass rusher who can also stop the run.

Potential Pitfalls

- Offensive line: The Steelers' offensive line was a major weakness in 2023, and it's still a concern in 2024. They need to stay healthy and improve their pass protection in order for the offense to succeed.
- Secondary: The Steelers' secondary was also a weakness in 2023, and they need to improve in 2024. They need to add some playmakers to the back end of their defense in order to create more turnovers.
- Coaching: Mike Tomlin is one of the best coaches in the NFL, but he's coming off a disappointing season in 2023. He needs to make some adjustments in order to get the Steelers back on track in 2024.

Predictions

The Steelers have a lot of talent on their roster, but they also have some potential pitfalls. If they can stay healthy and improve their offensive line and secondary, they have the potential to be a playoff contender in 2024.

However, if they can't make those improvements, they could be in for another disappointing season.

Here are some predictions for the Steelers' record in 2024:

- Best-case scenario: 12-5 record, win AFC North, make Super Bowl
- Most likely scenario: 10-7 record, finish 2nd in AFC North, make playoffs
- Worst-case scenario: 8-9 record, miss playoffs

The Steelers are a talented team with a lot of potential. However, they also have some weaknesses that they need to address in order to be a contender in 2024. If they can stay healthy and make the necessary improvements, they have the potential to be a Super Bowl contender. However, if they can't make those improvements, they could be in for another disappointing season.
